I would firstly like to thank the committee of Columbia River Welsh Corgi Club for inviting me to judge their 21st Specialty show, which I enjoyed very much. Thanks also must go to the Chair Carol Schroeder and Co-Chair Donna Newton, for the wonderful care they took of both my husband and myself. Thank you also for the lovely gift of a Suit Clothes Bag. Very much appreciated. To the exhibitors, I thank you most sincerely for the way you accepted my decisions. At times they were hard to make. I applaud you all on the beautiful presentation of all your dogs. I had some excellent dogs to choose from and I was most pleased with my final winners.

SWEEPSTAKES

Judge: Cathy Donovan (Northrun Corgis)

I would like to thank the Columbia River Pembroke Welsh Corgi Club for extending the invitation to judge your Specialty Sweepstakes. You have a wonderful club and I thoroughly enjoyed my assignment. The friendliness of your members and the hospitality extended to me and my husband Jim was over the top. The garment bag with my kennel name on it will be a well-used and treasured memory from Columbia River. I would love to make the trip again sometime as an exhibitor.

I was thrilled with the overall quality of my entry! I want to thank the exhibitors who showed their puppies and veterans to me and accepted my placements with courtesy and good sportsmanship. I saw some lovely dogs and bitches, as always you have to judge the dog on the day but there were many exhibits that could have changed places in the line-up on a different day.

My thoughts on what I saw while judging would concern the feet, I saw several feet that were not as tight as they could have been. Several dogs with longer loins and not enough ribbing. Temperaments on all the Corgis I judged were great. All in all I think the breed is in good hands in the Pacific Northwest. Thank you again for having me.

~ Cathy Donovan, Northrun Corgis
